The reading for the day looked at verses 15-20, but Kel expanded his discourse to reflect on the complete chapter. To summarise, Kel said: "Self-importance and pride have no place in the kingdom of God. To follow Jesus means taking on the position of lowest status, making sure that we do all we can to encourage others in the way, acknowledging that it is God's will that none of his sheep should be lost to the kingdom, that forgiveness has no limit, and that God has forgiven us so we forgive others.
