EAST AFRICA FAMINE EMERGENCY APPEAL envelopes are in the pews. If you wish to donate in cash, please place your donation in the appeal envelope and put it in the Sunday offering bowl and our Treasurer will pass it on. If donating by cheque or credit card you may prefer to send it direct as per instructions in the leaflet. The need is great. This is the first time famine has been declared anywhere in the world in the last six years. Your gift could provide lifesaving food, water and much needed supplies to families dying from starvation. Please help as you are able.

WITH LOVE TO THE WORLD is a daily Bible reading guide which includes Bible passages to be used in each Sunday's worship services. There is approximately 20 lines of reflection on each day's passage. Free sample copies of the current issue (May 8—August 6th for the season of Pentecost) are available in the church porch. Please borrow a copy to see if you wish to use this valuable resource. Talk to Greg Carruthers or Margaret Parry if you want to order your own copy in the future.

OUR LADIES FELLOWSHIP GROUP will meet next Wednesday at 1.30pm. We look forward to enjoying Faye McLean's talk, followed by a chat and afternoon tea.

All welcome to morning tea

CAN YOU REMEMBER WHAT WE WERE ALL DOING LAST MAY? We were using our "talents" as part of our yearly fundraising efforts. It was such a success that the Fundraising Committee feel it is worthy trying again. So come on all you talented people, make those craft items, "stir" up those jams, pickles and chutneys, bake some more of those delicious cakes, biscuits and pies, or get creative with your own ideas. There will be a table in the foyer of the church each Sunday for you to sell your goods.

If you have already used your talents and raised some money then please return it to the church in a sealed envelope marked "Talent Month" and place it in the offering bowl. It is not necessary to add your name.
