THANKS FROM THE OCEAN GROVE JIM TEAM AND Peace Palette. The exhibition of photographic art at Lyn's home was a great success. $1700 was raised for the work undertaken in South Sudan by Peace Palette. Thanks to the folk who cam to this event and the generosity of the artists who gave their profits from the sales of their works to support the orphanage that David Vincent established. David, Ayr and others have visited us several times and informed us about the growing stages of the development of the Nhomlau Children's Centre with the beginnings in 2012 when they recognized a great need to rescue children and young people who were orphaned from living on the streets. The centre currently provides a safe home, education, clean water, one meal a day and activities as well as giving the children hope. Last year's exhibition helped raise funds towards the purchase of a grinding machine to process grains that the Nhomlau boys were growing in their developing gardens. Your might like to look up Peace Palette on the web to see more.

Be in the kitchen at 10.30am and 2.00pm to serve a cuppa to the workers. Don't forget to pick up your labels for cakes, biscuits slices etc and record your PIM with Judy Greer. Deliver you jams, chutneys, pickles to Helen Baum asap.
