AT OUR LADIES FRIENDSHIP GROUP, last Wednesday, Be presented a wonderful talk based on prayer. She spoke about the way her prayers have mostly been for thanking God, and at other times for asking for his help. She gave us all a print out as follows,
"Seven Room House of Prayer"

Room 1 - Affirm the Presence of God

Room 2 - Praise, thank and adore God.

Room 3 - This is a dim room, blind drawn for confession, unloading and forgiveness.

Room 4 – Affirmation and reception - Psalm 23

Room 5 - Asking, requesting, desiring, Make me, show me, use me.

Room 6 - Intercession for others - name each person

Room 7 - Is a big room at the top of the house – meditation, also a time for silence and listening

ELDERS meeting Thursday June the 14th 10.00am, in the church foyer.

FUNDRAISING FOR JUNE: Yes the Recycled Treasure Sale is happening on Saturday June the 16th 8.00am—12noon. The fundraising Committee would like all members of the Congregation to help this month as we have decided to try a couple of special “attractions” One of them is homemade baking and the other is kindling for winter fires. So please consider baking something for the stall. It can be anything but cream sponges as the stall will be part of the Recycled Treasure Sale outside. If you can not bake them you may consider making a monetary donation so that those talented cooks can be helped to buy ingredients. All goodies for the stall can be delivered to the church on Friday June the 15th before 2.30pm when the setting up for the sale will be happening. Neil Derrick and Norm Elliott have already began the work preparing old trestles and doors for the kindling but now need help in cutting it into smaller pieces. If you can help please call Neil (0403 937 427) who will give you a time to come along with your “axe, tomahawk or chain saw” Help is also needed with setting up and the actual selling on the Saturday. Please let Dianne or Neil know if you are able to help with baking, setting up and selling, so that the Fundraising Committee knows that there will be plenty of help for this fundraising effort.
Remember many hands make light work.
