LEARNING TO LISTEN

How well do you listen to another person? Are you a good communicator? Most people would answer very well and yes to these questions. After all, listening and communication are easy, right? We all do them both every day. As long as you keep nodding don't interrupt, and can repeat what the other person said, you're a good listener...right? Well not exactly.

Listening involves attention, being present, and hospitality, and it is a component of devotion, nurturing, and wonder.

Listening is our bridge to the wisdom of sacred texts and spiritual teachers. It is an essential part of the discernment process whereby we identify God's messages for us. Have you been taking the time to listen for that small voice during these uncertain times? Doing faith at home is so important for each of us. It is not just about worship with the gathered group, we are responsible for our own faith development. What are you doing about your relationship with God @ home? How are you listening and communicating with Jesus?

Listening enables us to tune in to others and our inner voices of intuition and conscience. It is how we know we are part of the natural, technological, and media worlds all around us.

There is probably no greater gift that we can give our friends, family and even strangers than to truly listen to them. The attitude of selflessness that is involved in truly listening leads to a deepening of relationships and this kind of communication is just so important within our churches and ministry contexts. Previously we talked about mission and the best and first step for any Christian mission is to listen well.

An inability or unwillingness to listen is a symptom of self-centeredness. It signals that we are shut up in ourselves, not interested in participating in what is going on around us. It can also indicate an obliviousness to our best interests which may be trying to make themselves known through our inner voices.

Let us all try to be truly present to our God, others and ourselves by listening intentionally. Don't be distracted by our own plans, assumptions, voices, or need to respond. Experience the deep communion that is possible as you deeply listen.

The Reverend Narelle Collas

BEWARE!

The Grumpy Old Men are resuming meetings!

10.30am on Tuesdays
at the Groove, Wallington Road.

At the present, we are outdoors, so of course the weather, and attire are factors.

You may attend, or steer clear, as appropriate.

UCAF NEWS

Members please note that there will be NO October meeting, but hopefully we may be able to meet in November.

Subscriptions to Network Magazine for 2021 are increasing to $20.00 and are now due.

If you wish to continue to receive the magazine please place payment in a marked envelope (ensure that you include your name) and deliver to the letterbox of Joan Billington (12 Draper Street) or Judy Greer (14B Acacia Court) by Friday November the 6th.

Sad news: Nance Hodge died last week. Nance was a past President of the Monday UCAF and had moved to Leopold.

CHURCH CLOSED

This does not mean that you have to miss out on worship though.

The Reverend Bob Thomas is posting the complete service on the website which includes You Tube clips of the hymns, and there is a hard copy of the service that you can download if you would prefer to read the litany for worship.

And do not forget that each week you can join in worship through zoom at 10.00am

QUOTABLE QUOTES

“It’s been a rough day. I got up this morning, put on a shirt and a button fell off. I picked up my briefcase and the handle came off. I’m afraid to go to the bathroom.” Rodney Dangerfield.

“I went to my doctor and asked for something for persistent wind. He gave me a kite!” Les Dawson

“Too bad all the people who know how to run the country are busy driving taxis and cutting hair.” George Burns

FITTED MASKS NOW MANDATORY

Fitted masks are now compulsory in Melbourne and Regional Victoria.

Bandanas, face shields, scarves and other items used to cover the mouth and nose are no longer legal.

If you are spotted outside without a fitted mask, you are liable for a $200 on-the-spot fine.
