FLYING FOR LIFE: Mission Aviation Fellowship

We believe everyone deserves hope, including the isolated.

On the first Sunday of September, we celebrate Father's Day and give thanks to God our Father for the men in our lives who care for us and encourage us to grow as people.

This year we have decided to honour the work of Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF), most of whose pilots are fathers who give of themselves often beyond the call of duty.

To enable them to continue their work we are raising money for aviation fuel so they can continue flying and embodying the caring love of God.

This Sunday you are invited to a special morning tea where there will be an opportunity to make a donation to MAF and there will be cards available for sale.

I bring this to you on behalf of the Justice and Mission group of our Congregation and encourage you to support it.

The Reverend Peter Gador-Whyte.

Have you been wondering where Alex McLachlan is?

Alex has just moved into permanent care at
Outlook Gardens
504 Police Road Dandenong North 3175

He has only been there a week and is settling in well. The facility is a Dutch Reform Church Aged care one, and he appears to be responding well to the Christian aspects.
